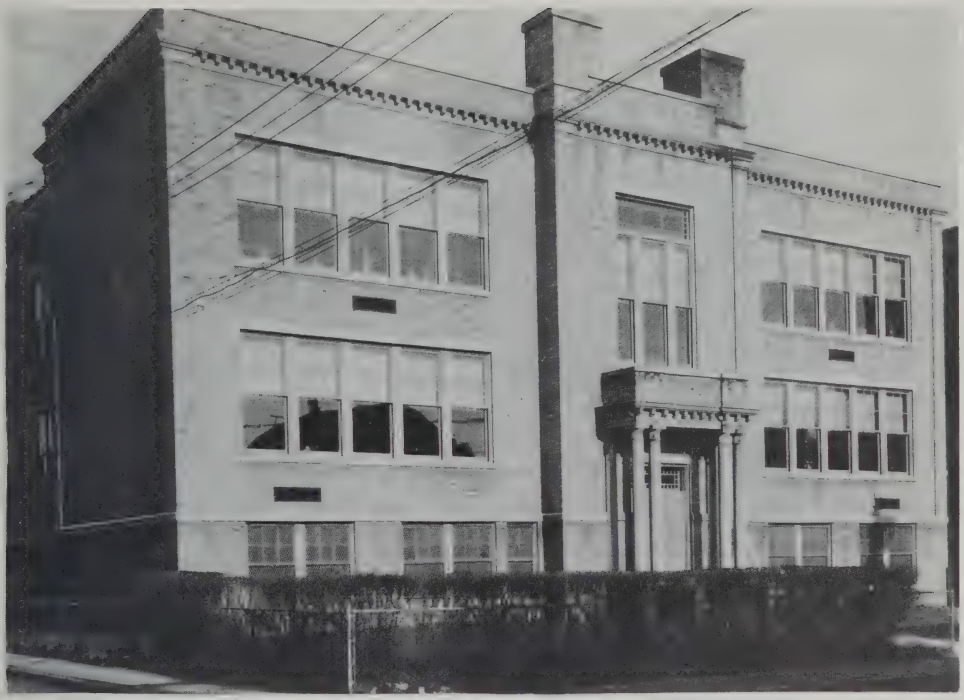
MARY IS MY MOTHER

I must go to her for help, for courage, for guidance, for all grace. She will lead me to the right choice. She will help me give glory to God. She will show me how to find happiness.

* * * *

AD JESUM PER MARIAM

O God, the shepherd and ruler of all the faithful, look down favorably upon Thy servant, Pope Pius XII whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church; grant, we beseech Thee that he may benefit both by word and example those over whom he is set, and thus attain unto life eternal, together with the flock committed to his care.



OUR LADY OF PITY SCHOOL

In the many years to come, we, the Graduating Class of 1950, shall always find indelibly inscribed in our memory, the fact that the days spent at N. D. P. H. were the best and the happiest in every way. May we always be a credit to her name.

REVEREND JOSEPH V. DEMERS, S. M.

To our kindly and devoted pastor we wish to express our deep appreciation for the personal interest taken in our school, and for his unbounded zeal and enthusiasm for whatever might further us on the paths of knowledge.

Reverend Charles LeFlem, S.M.

Reverend Lucien Chasse, S.M.

THE PRIEST

He is another Christ -- respect him;

He is God's representative -- trust him;

He is your benefactor-- be thankful to him.

Reverend Albert Chabot, S. M.

Reverend Robert Labrecque, S.M.

TO OUR SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

R E V E R E N D A L B E R T C H A B O T, S. M.

For the past four years N. D. P. H. students have been blessed with the encouraging counsels and wise direction of our zealous spiritual director,

REVEREND ALBERT CHABOT, S.M.

Since our freshman days we had the privilege of profiting by his clear, thorough, and enthusiastic treatment of the truths of our Holy Religion.
With his aid
we have come to a deeper realization of our duties as Christians and throughout our lives his kindly advice and helpful admonitions will continue to spur us on to greater things

CLASS PRESIDENT

NORMAN BRODEUR

8 Hancock Pk.
Everett, Mass.

"A good laugh is sunshine in a house."

Although Norman doesn't reside in our city and came to us as a stranger in his freshman year, he's definitely "one of us" now. He seems to have an inexhaustible fountain of joy,thereby diffusing his jocose spirit among all listeners. All through high school he has proved himself a leader and an A-plus student. Norman has a topnotch reputation for school spirit and a sterling character. Our Class President has shouldered his responsibilities of office with a steady smile, and that's the way we'll always remember him.

154 504

VICE PRESIDENT

CECILE AUDET

183 Sherman Street
Cambridge, Mass.

"A cheerful disposition makes many friends."

Fair and square and serious in her studies is this lass. Her blond hair covers a busy head, so much so that she is our "popular" Vice-President. Her charming ways and pleasant disposition with an ever ready spirit to participate in school activities have made her one of our favorites.Success must lie in wait for one who puts such energy into all she does.

JEANNETTE COTE

26 Reed St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"Always smiling, full of pep,
Ambition and she are right in step."

Jeannette, an ambitious and brilliant student, has a sparkling smile and a winning personality which have earned her a very special place in our hearts. Coming to us as an honor student from our Elementary School, her splendid record during her four years of high school bears testimony to her scholarship and reliability. In years to come she intends to fulfill her ambition to be a Medical Secretary.

T R E A S U R E R

JOSEPH CYR

80 Yorktown St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"The better you know him,
The better you like him."

Wherever there's mischief you'll find Joe, for full of life and mirth is he. Well-liked by all is our Class Treasurer and musician. Who knows, with those nimble fingers of his he might become a future impressario of the "88 keys", or with his present experience, be a magnate of a grocery concern.

CLAIRE BREEN

155 Sherman St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"Silence is golden."

Claire is quiet and serene in school but none of us really know her out of class. She likes to joke, jest, and laugh and for this she is welcomed everywhere. Although Claire never mentions what she intends doing in the future, many of us have our suspicions. Lots of luck, Claire.

154 504

JEANNETTE BROCHU

8 Dudley St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"A fun-loving pal and a jolly good sport."

Jeannette, a tall, attractive girl, has sparkling eyes and a winning smile. Roller-skating, dancing, and a general good time are some of the attractions that fill up her leisure time. She has no definite plans for the future,but the best wishes of her friends attend her in whatever sphere of life she may wander.

YVONNE BURKE

40 Harvey St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"She is always laughing and gay, too,
She gets along with all of us."

Yvonne is a care-free and happy-go-lucky student, one who is always willing to give a helping hand. The class wouldn't be the same without her wit and humor. Her favorite pastime is dancing, and she is a lover of sports. Dental Hygiene is the field which seems to attract her. What dentist would refuse her employment to cheer up his patients?

SALLY DAVIS

120 Jackson St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"Personality and charm she does combine;
A sense of humor and a clever mind."

We now introduce our energetic and fun-loving miss, Sally Davis. She is certainly thorough in all she does and never has it been heard that this girl came to class unprepared. Sally is at her best when gracefully performing on the dancing floor and none of us will forget her ability as a ballet dancer. To be a school teacher is the goal for which she is heading — Best of luck, Sally — .

DORIS DESROSIERS

368 Rindge Avenue
Cambridge, Mass.

"The sweetest music in the world is that of the human voice."

Doris is not too short, nor too tall, but is loved by all of her classmates. Whenever entertainment is needed, we can always rely on her, because her bewitching voice draws many listeners and holds them spellbound. Since her future plans are not yet revealed, we can't say much, but we are sure she will succeed.

MARIE DUPEREY

20 Dudley St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"A good disposition that gold cannot buy."

Marie is a quiet, sociable, and well-liked girl. Her popularity rates high with everyone because of her grand personality. She enjoys a good time but also knows when to be serious. Because of these qualities we are sure she will go far in attaining her goal in life.

154 504

ELAINE FRENIERE

54 Montgomery St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"Order is heaven's first law."

Elaine is our idea of a perfect lady at all times. Never ruffled or caught racing around with hair disheveled, always heard speaking in a soft, well-modulated voice, tall, dignified, and gracious — that's Elaine as we have known her since her first days at school. We hope she realizes her life's ambition, and that she will become a great success in her chosen vocation.

ELIZABETH HACKETT

698 Green St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"To know her is a pleasure,
To have her friendship is a treasure."

Although we have known Betty for two years only, we have discovered that her friendly smile and her pleasant personality help her to make lasting friendships. Her red hair and blue eyes are a tremendous asset in accomplishing this feat. She is really a perfect example of the saying, "Good things come in small packages."

PAULINE LEBLANC

40 Harvey St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"A good heart is better than riches."

A pleasant smile, a sunny disposition, and a will to win, all three spell Pauline. She possesses the efficiency and capability of a successful typist. Whenever you hear a ripple of laughter you know that Pauline is present. We know that she will always reflect credit on the class of '50.

WILFRID PETITPAS

116 Dudley St.
Cambridge, Mass.

"Men of few words are the best of men."

Wilfrid may not speak loud nor often, but makes up for it with his sensational voice which tantalizes all who hear it. His future life will undoubtedly be that of a nationally-known singer. We feel sure that he will sing his way along the road of success. Our best luck to you!

154 504

PAULINE POIRIER

169 Rindge Ave.
Cambridge, Mass.

"True friends are like diamonds, precious and rare."

Here is a happy-go-lucky gal who never fails to contribute to our classroom atmosphere with her sunny disposition. Pauline has won for herself many friendships, a quality that money cannot buy. Pauline's ambitions for next year are a secret, but she knows the best wishes of her classmates go with her wherever she may be.

HAROLD WILLIAMS

8 Seven Pines Ave.
Cambridge, Mass.

"A smile is worth a million dollars,
And it doesn't cost a cent."

Harry is friendly and easy to get along with. He is always ready and willing to lend a helping hand whenever it is needed. A winning smile and an envied ability in accounting are his. These are but a few of his characteristics, which in the future will help him to attain his goal.

PROPHECY

As we gazed into our magic pool
Its water being clear and cool,
Various visions slowly appeared
Depicting scenes of future years.

DORIS seemed all dressed for a ball -
This get-up she had was for Carnegie Hall.
She had a voice that was quite shrill,
An impression to all it did instill.

YVONNE, our witty comedienne,
Livened a show from beginning to end;
Her steady appearance at the Roxie
Proved that she had plenty of "moxie".

Growing potatoes in Idaho
Was HAROLD WILLIAMS making "dough".
An immense fortune he has amassed,
His large estate left you aghast.

By the sea we found JEANNETTE B.
On vacation - - at Miami,
Teaching rhumba, samba, quadrille,
And hoped some day to go to Brazil.

If it's learnin' you are yearnin'
To SALLY's school you'll be turnin'.
There she taught to the best of her knowledge
Being a graduate of Wellesley College.

WILFRED's voice had brought him new fame,
Everyone knew him down our lane.
He won his upstart and his name
With his favorite song, "Mule Train".

A familiar figure came into view,
As BETTY HACKETT modeled the "new".
Minks, ermines, muskrats too -
All she eagerly displayed for you.

If you have problems in etiquette,
The person to see is CECILE AUDET.
She had a column all her own
In a magazine called "Ladies' Home".

154 504

In a restaurant whom did we see?
None other than Yvonne drinking tea.
And when from the table her cup did drop
In walked JEANNETTE COTE with pail and mop.

JOE's fingers made his work thrilling,
He was pulling strings for a living.
His specialty was that of duets
Of singing and dancing marionettes.

On a corner was PAULINE L.
With bunches of flowers trying to sell;
Freshly picked and smelling sweet
All were sold along the street.

Cambridge had one more election,
The people's choice was this selection -
'Twas the first in history - a Lady-Mayor -
None other than our popular CLAIRE.

And all of a sudden, to our surprise,
Along came NORMAN changed in size.
And though he had been ambitious
Now he was only washing dishes.

PAULINE POIRIER had an easy life,
Of a great scientist she was the wife.
She and her husband had struck it rich
By inventing a sure-cure for the itch.

When we came across ELAINE
A lot of weight she had gained;
For during all the years that had passed
Our Elaine surely did not fast.

Last but not least there was MARIE
Squandering her riches in gay Paree;
She was the "brain" of the notorious mob,
The one that pulled the Brinks Job.

And in this pool in which we've glanced
Sparkling bubbles that moment danced.
For from the bottom of the mere
A school of fish did then appear.

And that, my friends, is the conclusion
Of our prophecy and its illusions.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1950, hereafter to be known as the party of the first part, having no connection with any other party, Democratic, Republican, or Birthday and being of poor health and of unsound mind because of excessive study, do hereby bequeath the following, according to the laws of the state and the censorship of the Faculty.

TO THE FATHERS OF THE PARISH -we leave our undying gratitude for their religious guidance given us during our happy days here at N. D. P. H., and a promise that their teachings will be put into practice in our journey through life.

TO THE FACULTY - we leave our deepest appreciation and genuine praise for their tireless efforts in guiding and teaching us, though at times we did seem hopeless.

TO THE INCOMING SENIORS - we leave :

1. The title of upper-classmen.
2. Our method of having a successful Senior Prom.
3. The following advice on "How to be Perfect Seniors"
   a) Be dignified at all times.
   b) Be cooperative at all times.
   c) Be obedient to the bell at all times - in other words, "Follow our Example !!!"

TO THE SOPHOMORES - we leave all our WISDOM ???

TO THE FRESHMEN - our good record of DETENTION.

BECAUSE OF OUR OVERPOWERING GENEROSITY OF HEART, WE WILL LEAVE INDIVIDUAL POSSESSIONS TO THOSE WHOM WE HOLD MOST DEAR:

CECILE AUDET bequeaths her gaiety to Rita Levasseur.

CLAIRE BREEN leaves her height to Germaine Berube.

JEANNETTE BROCHU wills her GIFT OF GAB to Ruth Jutras.

NORMAN BRODEUR leaves his hearty laughter to Edward Pronovost and his slim waistline to William DeYoung.

YVONNE BURKE leaves her wittiness and wonderful sense of humor to Sally Gray and Arthur Hudson.

JOSEPH CYR leaves his ability of collecting money to Lawrence Theriault.

154 504

JEANNETTE COTE wills her baby-blue eyes to Laureat Lemieux.

SALLY DAVIS wills her graceful dancing to Gloria Cossette.

DORIS DESROSIERS leaves her "broken chairs"to Mary O'Brien.

MARIE DUPEREY bequeaths her famous red sweater to Vincent Demers and her winning smile to Ann Ross.

ELIZABETH HACKETT leaves her sister Lia to follow in her footsteps.

ELAINE FRENIERE wills her daintiness to Madeleine Gaulin.

PAULINE LEBLANC leaves her ability of ringing the bell to Mary Walsh and her lists of spelling words to Alfred Emery.

PAULINE POIRIER bequeaths her dissected specimens in Biology to Jeannette Murphy and Jeannette Cajolet.

WILFRID PETITPAS leaves his quiet manners to Dolores Arseneaux and Ruth Hudson.

HAROLD WILLIAMS leaves his muscular physique to Henry Lavallee.

In witness thereof, we the undersigned, do hereby declare this document to be our LAST WILL and TESTAMENT in this year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty.

AUREVOIR

L'heure du départ est donc arrivée pour nous, gradués de 1950. Ce n'est pas sans regret que je dois vous dire, au nom de la Classe des finissants "Aurevoir" à tous - nos prêtres, nos maitresses et nos chers amis.

Au Père Demers, notre devoué pasteur, nous devons une grande reconnaissance pour les marques de bonté et de tendresse qu'il nous a temoignées depuis son arrivée parmi nous. A notre zélè directeur, le Père Chabot, nous offrons nos sincères remerciments pour le dévouement qu'il a déployé au cours de ses instructions religieuses afin de faire de nous des chrétiens dignes de ce nom. Merci, aussi, à tous les autres prêtres qui se sont dévoués pour le bien de nos âmes.

Nous allons entrer dans le monde; des mille routes qu'il ouvre à l'activité humaine, chacun de nous en prendra une. La carrière des uns sera brillante, celle des autres, obscure et cachée; peu importe le genre d'occupation de chacun, tous nous nous efforcerons de mettre en pratique les bons conseils r s de nos vénérés Pères afin de mériter, un jour la récompense p mise par Notre-Seigneur au bon et fidèle serviteur de l'Evangile.

A nos dévouées maitresses nous exprimons notre plus vive reconnaissance pour la formation chrétienne et religieuse qu'elles nous ont donnée. L'accomplissement du devoir, voilà le véritable but de la vie et le véritable bien qu'elles nous ont enseigné. Aussi nous formons la résolution de ne jamais oublier leurs avis afin d'être toujours fidèles à remplir notre tâche avec courage et énergie, honnêtement et fidèlement.

Oh! nos chers parents! A vous qui avez si modestement vécu pour nous assurer le bienfait d'une éducation chrétienne, nous disons merci, oui, merci de tout notre coeur. Regarder en haut, apprendre au dela, chercher à s'élever toujours, voilà ce que vous nous avez enseigné. Soyez bénis, chers parents, pour ce que vous avez fait pour vos enfants.

Ce soir il nous faut aussi dire Aurevoir à nos amis de classe. A eux est réservé le bonheur de passer encore un peu de temps à l'Ecole Notre Dame de Pitié. Que le bon Dieu leur donne un amour toujours croissant pour notre Alma Mater, lieu béni ou nous avons passé treize années dans le bonheur et la paix.

En vous quittant, Révérends Pères,dévouées maitresses et chers amis, nous vous demandons un souvenir dans vos ferventes prières afin que le Saint-Esprit guide nos pas chancelants et que chacun de nous se contente de la part qui lui sera échue dans les années a venir.

Through the fruitful efforts of Father Chabot, the Dialogue Mass proved to be a success. Since its introduction the whole student body assists at Mass with greater attention and devotion.

GROUPE DE FINISSANTS DEVANT LE SAINT SACREMENT

O Jésus, vrai Dieu et vrai Homme, ici présent dans la Sainte Eucharistie, humblement prosterné devant Vous, je Vous adore en union avec les fidèles de la terre et les saints du Ciel; et pénétré de reconnaissance pour un si grand bienfait, je Vous aime de tout mon coeur, o Jésus infiniment parfait et infiniment aimable.

Accordez-moi la grace de ne jamais Vous offenser aucunement, et après avoir profité ici-bas de votre présence eucharistique, à la Messe, dans la Communion et au Tabernacle, d'aller jouir avec Marie de votre éternelle et bienheureuse présence au Ciel.

Ainsi soit-il.

CLASS SONG

This is the end of a story, a volume of gold,
Four years of sweet memories, to have and hold.
Our teachers so kind, so wise and sweet,
We look forward to the next time we'll meet.
We leave all our classmates, so good and true;
With few words of farewell, "May God Bless You".
No words can express how we feel to-night,
Leaving you, our N. D. P. High.

To you, our dear teachers, we have all come to say,
We now wish to thank you in every way.
We've received so much, we've so little to give,
Through the years in our hearts, your teachings will live.
A new world we see, and decisions to make,
But because of you, wise judgment we'll take.
Farewell to your portals, and school-days, good-bye,
Our beloved N. D. P. High.

THERE'S A REASON WHY

JOE teases Jeannette Brochu.
SALLY succeeds in Biology.
NORMAN keeps expanding.
CLAIRE goes to the Harvard.
WILFRID hangs around Ralph's.
YVONNE is such a tease.
JEANNETTE BROCHU goes to the Bal-A-Roue.
HAROLD walks down Rice St.
ELIZABETH hates red heads.
DORIS doesn't date.
ELAINE'S hair is always in place.
CECILE has blond hair.
JEANNETTE COTE goes to the high school dances.
MARIE always gets her Bookkeeping home-work done.
